VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1890.

NO. 61

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Altho' we would like to, we cannot attend the republican convention at London the 30th, but here's our say on the candidates and the result:

Judge Finley is an old war sheik, vindictive as a Turk.
Depending on his battle-blade to do the bloody work;
The bigness of Pulaski's bounds gives Trimble confidence;
Nell plumes herself on strength of friends and sturdy common sense;
Vince Boreing, with his mountain lands and cash on mail routes made,
Banks on his "blocks-of-five" to put him foremost in the raid;
Big Silas Adams, with a brain prodigious in its scope,
And tongue of flame, has that on which to build a mighty hope
The fight is on, put up your chips on any—we don't care;
Here's money in our 'pouch to bet John "Henery" gets there!

—Mr. A. H. Bastin has bought of Mr. Porter Robinson his cottage near the depot for $300.

—Mrs. W. T. Stephenson will represent the Crab Orchard W. C. T. U. in the State convention at Richmond.

—There will be an oyster supper Saturday night at Holmes' School-house for the benefit of the Sunday-school at that place.

—Fodder-pullin's, bean-hullin's, apple-peelin's and lasses-stirin's are some of the pastimes now regaling the home-loving, joyous country folks.

—I have just returned from the city with a full line of fall and winter millinery goods and will make a display of them Saturday and Monday, Oct. 4 and 5. With thanks for past liberal patronage I cordially invite the ladies to come and examine my new stock. Mrs. J. H. Stephens.

—The W. C. T. U. were out in full force Saturday evening and paraded the streets with cornet, sackbut, psaltery and lute, calling upon all in their way to sign the touch-not-taste-not-handle-not-pledge. It was amusing to see the lords of creation dodging these feminine crusaders, whose zeal for the good cause was not to be repulsed.

—The most embarrassing time in the world for a young man when "a spunking" is to have the lamp suddenly go out in darkness, just before he's ready to depart. If his girl isn't a mighty sweet one he's dead sure to sink away, wishing that he had never "toasted" himself into her presence. We never wished that—but—but the cause we assign above was all that kept us from it.

—The band boys are not often in "the swim," but when they are they are in over head and ears. Thursday night Misses Jennie and Hattie Collier invited them out to their country home and regaled them with a feast of dainties such as few weddings can boast of. Music and tete-a-tetes made up the rest of the time until 11 o'clock and the boys departed, loading their fair hostesses with thanks for the evening's delights.

—Ben Moore and Charley Collins, two pupils of W. J. Edmiston's school, aged 16 and 14 respectively, fell out over a game of marbles at playtime Thursday and Collins plunged a knife into Moore somewhere about the small of the back, inflicting a dangerous if not a fatal wound. Collins was cut twice in the hand. Mr. Edmiston was at dinner and knew nothing of the fight until his return to the school-house. Collins has not been arrested.

—W. A. Brooks was in town Sunday. Mr. Charley Douglas, of Danville, was up to see his sister, Mrs. H. B. Farris, Tuesday. Mrs. R. G. Potter, of Manchester, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. A. Redd, Jr., for the past two weeks, has returned home. Mr. John Anderson, Garrard county's brany young superintendent of common schools, took in the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night.

—Miss Mabel Graves, of Missouri, is at the Harris House. Dr. R. G. Redd, after a pleasant summer's sojourn with friends and relatives in this and adjoining counties, has returned to his home in Montana. Mrs. George Debold, who has been lying dangerously ill, is convalescing. Miss Beauregard Stuart has gone to Louisville to take a position in a millinery establishment.

—Unique and delightfully entertaining indeed was the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night, and the public showed its appreciation by filling the house with a fair-minded, intelligent audience. The contest opened with 12 entries on the boards, eight young ladies and four young gentlemen, who were represented in their selected pieces every species of literature, from the grave and serious down to the most comical and ludicrous. Prof. John Anderson, of Garrard, in the absence of Squire Chappell, who had been chosen, Dr. J. D. Pettus and Mr. R. Lee Davis acted as judges; and after balancing carefully the excellencies of each reader, awarded the palm of victory to Carpenter Stuart, whose selection, "The Guileless Witness," by its happy rendition, was made as funny as could be. Andrew Buchanan, with "Calling a Boy in the Morning," came second best; Miss Eva Steger, with "The Unbeliever," third, and Miss Alice Moore with "Home to Mother," fourth.

All the contestants acquitted themselves splendidly and Mr. W. A. Zeller in particular. So well received was his selection, "The Director's Visit," that he was called upon to furnish more and responded with "George Washington's Little Hatchet," which completely captivated the house. But the witty reply which he got off on some fellow in the audience was the crowning glory of the evening. As he arose to render "George's Little Hatchet" somebody in the rear of the audience yelled out in slurry, derisive tenor, "Tweekle, tweekle little star!" With a clownish stare and sarcastic tone which would have made a Dan Rice proud, he finished the stanza for the fellow—"How I wonder what you are," emphasizing the "you" so pointedly as to leave the impression on the audience that the fellow was a booby and an ass. Loud and prolonged laughter greeted this sally and everybody went away wearing a visible grin. The interposition of music by the C. O. string band was a decided feature of the entertainment. The match reflects considerable honor on Prof. Smith, and another illustration of his skillful training will be afforded when the "Juniates" have their performance, which is promised some time next month.

—R. H. Bronaugh bought this week of George W. Spangler two year-old heifers at $3, and of others a bunch of steer calves at $10 per head. Messrs. Joe and Robert McAlister received Thursday of various parties in this locality 15 weanling mules, for which they paid prices ranging from $50 to $75 per head. Squire L. K. Wells returned from Clay county Wednesday with a fine drove of mountain cattle, numbering 60 odd head, which he will shortly put upon the market. The squire is not only a judge of pretty women and rare old Bourbon, but is one of the shrewdest of traders and if there's anything in cattle-handling he's the man to find it. Michael Bowers, a sturdy German citizen of Rockcastle, bought this week of the widow Albright her farm of 400 acres for $2,450 and of Reuben Reynolds his farm of 160 acres for $500. These lands lie contiguous to Bee Lick, and Mr. Bowers will shortly take up his abode among the people of that excellent neighborhood.

—We met recently Capt. Charles M. Warner, ex conductor of the C. V. passenger train, with whom we were associated in the days when a railroad was a thing of wonder to the natives along the Upper Cumberland. The captain no longer wears the railroad brass-buttoned uniform, having given up his run to follow his old trade, detecting for the L. & N. He is as much in love with the mountains as the burly-framed, big-hearted mountaineers are with him, and all his chat was of the prosperous future which awaits that heaven-favored section. The C. V. train will never be run by a better pilot nor one more popular with the traveling public. The captain will make his headquarters at Louisville.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Born, to the wife of Mr. G. C. Lyon, a daughter.

—Billy Weatherford is here on a furlough. There is always a hearty greeting here for Billy.

—Miss Lullie, daughter of Geo. Riffe, Sr., has had a long struggle with typhoid fever, but bids fair to recover.

—Mr. J. W. Alcorn, wife and mother visited Hustonville last week. Jim is the West End's refuge when there's any uncertainty about ownership, legality or even justice.

—A partial solution of the strike by stove-haulers is found in the liberal spread of fresh metal on the steepest turnpike grades, making a half load even a severe tax on the faded teams.

—The outlook for fine fall sport has not been better since the '60's. Bird-hunters can rejoice in a general report of the greatest plentifulness of partridges; and rabbits are thicker here than English sparrows, which nuisances have become annoying.

—The veteran merchant, J. B. Green, finds it necessary to enlarge his accommodations for his increasing business. Accommodation is the most appropriate adjective to use in any connection with Mr. Green, for one of his greatest pleasures is to accommodate friend or acquaintance, no matter what the inconvenience to him.

—Saturday morning's breeze from the north stiffened up till at 4 o'clock in the afternoon it felt like an embryonic blizzard, but Sunday morning arrived without frost, though wondrously like the Sunday of a year ago, which preceded the freeze of such severity as to ruin the sorghum crop early in October.

—Mr. James H. Taylor has taken the road in the interest of the Hustonville Roller Mill. Grigg's acknowledged superiority as a high-roller flour-maker, supplemented by Jim's irresistible logic—sophistry, if necessary—will necessitate an early enlargement of the just-completed elevator, and the putting on of an efficient night shift.

—The circumambient is resonant with the wail of the orphan mule colt. There is little comfort to farmers in cattle and hogs and melody in only the bleat of the lamb and bray of the hybrid. J. W. Allen sold to Combest & Allen 40 slopping cattle at $2; the latter firm sold to Dave Allen a pair of 4-year-old mare mules for $300 and bought a good cotton mule of Mr. Allen for $80.

—Young Gooch, who was shot a week ago by an officer, survives, with excellent prospects of recovery. It is certain that a ball or two penetrated the spinal column and others have been located in the tissues of the abdomen, opposite points of entry. A direct passage without lacerating intestines would seem an impossibility. His case is a puzzle to the surgeons. Still alive, his mind clear from the no ment of his wounds, appetite and digestion good and a cheerful temperament promise a rapid recovery.

—The Little Red Hog, which has been of late years a pet diversion with the I. J., is, it seems, in a fair way to be relegated to the column of minor paragraphs by the Big Red Hog, in controversy between a prominent frequenter of Rowland and a citizen of Stanford. It is a noteworthy coincidence that immediately after the settlement of law suit which originated in the Middle Ages about a calf, that the disputed ownership of a hog promises a perpetuation of the wrangle on this side the ocean. The probability of another Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce is not a bleak prospect to attorneys who suspect that the revision will curtail litigation.

—The Joe Page farm of 60 acres was sold Saturday at executor's sale for $30, 25 per acre. A. M. Frye is the purchaser. This addition to Mr. Frye's farm extends his land from the Liberty to the Middleburg pike. Shades of Cincinnati! Land within a mile and less of Hustonville selling for $30 an acre, and the belief general that half the farms in Lincoln are privately on the market. Strange that the farmers will not see their benefits (!) in a high tariff and succeed better on a wind diet. We may not live to see the day of the "good time coming," but the Millennium is approaching and as old Johnny Caldwell was wont to cheer his slaves, "Hurrah! boys, you'll be free when you die."

—That the family rockaway horse, which it is thought superfluous to hitch, or even rig out with the best harness, only awaits the opportunity to play smash generally, is as nearly axiomatic as that the sleepy but trusty (?) mule courts reckless familiarity for 20 years that he may catch you in a position that his kick assures a through ticket to kingdom come. Capt. Joe Huffman is the sufferer now, in the demoralization of his old roan buggy horse, through the carelessness of his otherwise rusty friend, Wm. Reid, Sr. Mr. Reid, as chaperon to a couple of young fishermen, had the loan of old Roan and a spring wagon for a trip to Green river and when elated by their phenomenal catch they embarked for home in unusual glee, old Roan had found his chance. Mr. R. as champion of the catch, had patronizingly entrusted the lines to Henry Camnitz whilst he occupied the rear seat with Will Hocker. Roan's first lunge split the rear passenger promiscuously over the tail-gate, and the seat crashed upon the sprawlers, adding Will momentarily and wounding Mr. Reid's reel hand so severely that he will need a friend to do his jerking for him next time he goes fishing. Mr. C. heroically hung onto the steering apparatus and succeeded in piloting the old reprobate into a fence corner without further damage. It is unimpeachably established that the inevitable jug was not loaded with bait and Roan's obstreperousness was not a result of his having monked with the traps in the wagon; only an outburst of that pure cussedness which was of 20 years' latency.

COOPER'S JUBILEE YEAR.

Twenty-Seventh Annual Tour of the Famous Forepaugh Show.

Judging from the newspaper reports that precede its coming, the Forepaugh Show under the proprietorship of Mr. James E. Cooper will have many sensational and unique attractions to unfold for the edification and delight of people hereabouts, at Lexington, Friday, Oct. 3, Danville, Saturday, Oct. 4. Adam Forepaugh, Jr.'s, 40-horse bareback act, the feats of his fighting, dancing and clown elephants and the amusing performances of his equine prodigies—"Blondin," the high-rope walker, and "Eclipse," the trapezist—are among the pronounced hits of the arctic portion of the programme. The hippodrome races are said to possess all the stirring realism of the race track, scenes at Saratoga and Long Branch. The show teems with novelties throughout, but probably the most striking innovation is the presentation of the original "Wild West" show, supplemented with the equestrian dramas of "Custer's Last Battle" and the "Mountain Meadow Massacre," in which 200 mounted combatants are introduced. The street parade of the combined Forepaugh and "Wild West" shows is pronounced the grandest processional display ever seen in any American city. Railroad company will sell tickets at reduced rates to and from all stations.

CAN'T PLAY BALL.

The Interior Journals Beat the Lancasters Clean Out of Sight.

THEIR FEATHERS CLIPPED.—When the INTERIOR JOURNALS went to Lancaster Wednesday and were defeated by that club, not only the base ball players of that nine, but most of the town people went wild over their success and a feeling of conceit evidently penetrated their very souls. In fact they forgot that they were merely amateur players, and not very good ones at that, and when the manager of the I. J.'s casually remarked that they could not beat him team again, filthy lucre was shoved at him and he was forced to either put up or shut up. Arrangements were made then and there for another game, which was to be for $100 a side, and Friday afternoon was set for the date. The understanding was that each club should play the same nine that they played in the game previous, but on account of the sickness of Critchlow and the inability of Barton to leave his business, a couple of our substitutes were put in. This Manager Penny told the gentlemen who were seemingly anxious to put up their tin, but who at the mention of the substituted players declared the bets were off. Manager Penny also explained to them that the substitutes were no better than Critchlow and Barton and offered to let them be their own judges as to their playing, but the heretofore sportive men had so wilted that they could hardly be induced to bet on their own existence. It was finally agreed that the winning club should be entitled to the gate receipts and the game was then called and the Lancasters suffered the severest defeat that any poor base ball club ever heard of in these parts. The home team went to bat and made 3 runs; the I. J.'s then scored 6; the Lancasters made nothing in the 2d, but scored 1 in the 3d inning, and right here they died, for with all their hard playing they could not make another run. Our namesakes got three in the 2d, 3 in the 3d, 1 in the 4th, 6 in the 5th and 9 in the 6th. At this juncture of the game the boys who had crowded so loudly since our Waterloo of Wednesday, grew sick at heart and threw up the sponge, the game standing 28 to 4. It is no telling what the score would have been had not they given up the game, as our boys were literally pounding the life out of their "crack" pitcher, Ed Coleman; the catcher was broken down and two of the basemen were worn out. Ramsey and Embry were our battery and did good work, the former allowing only four base hits and the latter supporting him admirably. Will Wearen umpired an exceedingly satisfactory game and the consequence was there was no grumbling. One of the features of the game was Davison's putting 3 men out on 1st without an assist, and another was the good throwing of our boys, not to speak of 3 batters and several 3-batters that were made off of Pitcher Coleman. Our club is under obligations to that clever gentleman, Woodford G. Dunlap, for courtesies received, as well as to several other Lancaster gentlemen. We never crow over a fallen foe, but to the Lancaster club we would suggest that hereafter they remember that he who laughs last laughs best.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The county co-operation of the Christian churches will meet at Rush Branch church next Saturday morning at 9.30.

—Mrs. Pokie T. Courts united with the Presbyterian church Sunday by letter and her daughter, Miss Edna, by confession.

—The A. M. E. Conference is in session at Lexington. Rev. D. W. Ellison, pastor here, is a member of the committee on education.

—The meeting at Kingsville conducted by Elds. J. L. Allen and J. G. Livingston had resulted in 16 additions to yesterday and in an increased interest.

—Mrs. Hunter and Evans and Bro. Joe Hopper are conducting a meeting in Mercer, with 28 additions to last report. Rev. Mr. Campbell, of the Christian church, had had 40 in his meeting at Cornishville.

—The clergyman who leaves his calling to enter the political field, or who attempts to serve his Master while consorting with the political Devil is unworthy of his pulpit and unfit to be a law-maker.—Covington Commonwealth.

—Eld Zach Sweeney and wife are here from Columbus, Ind., on a visit to Eld. John S. Sweeney. Eld. Zach is minister to Turkey, and is one of the most popular ministers of the Christian church.—Paris News. He says he did not come home to run for Congress.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Bettie, daughter of Hon. S. Fry Lawrence, and Mr. Lucien M. Adkins, both of Louisville, will marry on the 10th.

—Mrs. Annie Hall has brought suit for divorce from her husband at Brooklyn on the ground that he grits his teeth while sleeping so that her nerves have been ruined.

—Bowling Green is to have free delivery of its mails.

A Blue-Grass Farm FOR SALE.

Wishing to quit farming, I will offer for sale on the premises, on

Wednesday, Oct. 1, 1890,

In one or more tracts, my farm in Lincoln Co., situated near the Danville & Hustonville turnpike 3 1/2 miles from Shelby City, and containing

About 300 Acres.

I can say without hesitation that this is naturally one of the best bodies of land in the county, and having been "cradled" for 20 years, is in condition to produce the heaviest of cereal crops, while its grass-producing capacity is unsurpassed. There is an abundance of fruit, including apples, peaches, &c., &c. There are but 30 acres now under cultivation, the balance all set in blue-grass, timothy and clover. It is well watered by creek and never failing springs. The fencing has all been re-set within the last 18 months and every field and pasture has water in it. The dwelling is a modern 4-story brick house, with hall, bath, school room, wash-room, front and rear porches and two nice, dry cellars. There are two large cisterns, stable and shed room for 50 head of stock, scales, wheat bin, feed shop, poultry house, flower pit, corn crib, carriage sheds, neat house, two good orchards and every variety of small fruit, such as peaches, plums, &c., &c. Public school close by and churches and mills convenient of access.

At the same time I will also sell all my stock, consisting of 1 and 2-year-old cattle, milk cows and a few sheep, and my entire

HERD OF POLLED ANGUS CATTLE.

Thirty head, from aged animals down to sucklings. They are "daisies," and no mistake. One pair work mules, 1 saddle gelding, 1 2-year-old gelding, 1 3-year-old gelding, 1 yearling stud colts by Hamlet; a choice brood mare with colts by Bashford and Imp. London; 2 good mule colts; 1 good black hog, all the crops, farming utensils and a lot of plunder.

Terms liberal and made known on day of sale.

Articles of Incorporation.

The Stanford & Logan's Creek Turnpike Co.

We, the undersigned, E. T. Pence, D. W. Vandever, S. H. Baughman, J. F. Peyton, J. S. Hughes, W. H. Miller, J. S. Owensley and John M. Hall, hereby associate ourselves together and agree to incorporate pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 56 of the General Statutes of Kentucky, by the corporate name of the Stanford & Logan's Creek Turnpike Road Company.

The business to be conducted is the building, maintaining and operating for profit a Macadamized turnpike road in Lincoln county, beginning at a point on Main street in Stanford, Ky., at an alley leading therefrom southward, between the premises of Mrs. Mollie Myers' heirs and John M. Hall and running thence southward over said alley to the St. Asaph Branch, thence easterly by the premises of D. W. Vandever, Hughes & Peyton, A. L. Hall's heirs, S. H. Baughman, J. S. Hughes and E. T. Pence to a point near Logan's Creek and a small creek emptying in thereinto in front of E. T. Pence's house, thence up Logan's Creek by the premises of S. H. Baughman, Dave Collier to an intersection with the Stanford and Crab Orchard turnpike near the "stone house" of Mrs. Chappell. The length of said road to be about two miles.

3. The principal place of business shall be Stanford, Lincoln county, Ky.

4. This corporation shall commence on the 15th day of July, 1890, and terminate on the 15th day of July, 1940, unless sooner terminated by a vote of two-thirds of the stock outstanding.

5. The authorized capital stock is six thousand dollars, which shall be paid at such times and in such amounts and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall prescribe. But the corporation may organize and begin business whenever three thousand five hundred dollars of the capital stock authorized by these articles shall have been subscribed. The capital stock shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and each share shall entitle the holder to one vote, either in person or by written proxy at all elections and at all meetings held by the stockholders.

6. The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of five directors, elected from the stockholders, one of which Directors shall be elected as President by said Board; and such Directors shall be elected on the first Saturday in June of each year and shall serve for one year, succeeding their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Said Board shall also elect a clerk and treasurer but no member of said Board shall be elected treasurer. No person shall be eligible to any office in this corporation who shall not be a stockholder therein.

7. The highest amount of indebtedness to which this corporation may at any time subject itself shall not exceed seven hundred dollars.

8. The private property of the members of this corporation shall be exempt from the debts of the corporation.

9. Persons, besides the incorporators herein mentioned, may become members of this corporation by paying and paying for shares of stock, or by purchasing and having shares of stock transferred to them on the books of the Company, after being subscribed and paid for by others.

10. No member of the Board of Directors of this corporation, except the President, shall receive any compensation, directly or indirectly, for his services as Director. The President and other officers (except Directors) and servants and employees of this corporation shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the resolutions of the Board of Directors and the by-laws.

11. This corporation shall have all the powers and privileges allowed to corporations of its nature and for its purposes under Chapter 56, Title Incorporated Companies and No. 110 Title Turnpike, Gravel and Plank Roads of the General Statutes of Kentucky and the subsequent Acts of the General Assembly of Kentucky, amendatory and supplemental thereto and shall be subject to the liabilities and discharge all the duties prescribed by said Statutes of Corporation of its nature and its purposes.

In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our respective names, this 10th day of July, 1890.
D. W. VANDEVEER,
J. F. PEYTON,
S. H. BAUGHMAN,

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Altho' we would like to, we cannot attend the republican convention at London the 30th, but here's our say on the candidates and the result:

Judge Finley is an old war sheik, vindictive as a Turk,
Depending on his battle-blade to do the bloody work;
The bigness of Pulaski's bounds gives Trimble confidence;
Nell plumes herself on strength of friends and sturdy common sense;
Vince Foreing, with his mountain lands and cash on mail routes made,
Banks on his "blocks-of-five" to put him foremost in the raid;
Big Silas Adams, with a brain prodigious in its scope,
And tongue of flame, has that on which to build a mighty hope
The fight is on, put up your chips on any—we don't care;
Here's money in our pouch to bet John "Hen cry" gets there!

—Mr. A. H. Bastin has bought of Mr. Porter Robinson his cottage near the depot for $300.

—Mrs. W. T. Stephenson will represent the Crab Orchard W. C. T. U. in the State convention at Richmond.

—There will be an oyster supper Saturday night at Holmes' School-house for the benefit of the Sunday-school at that place.

—Fodder-pullin's, bean-hullin's, apple-peelin's and lasses-stirin's are some of the pastimes now regaling the home-loving, joyous country folks.

—I have just returned from the city with a full line of fall and winter millinery goods and will make a display of them Saturday and Monday, Oct. 4 and 5. With thanks for past liberal patronage I cordially invite the ladies to come and examine my new stock. Mrs. J. H. Stephens.

—The W. C. T. U. were out in full force Saturday evening and paraded the streets with cornet, sackbut, psaltery and lute, calling upon all in their way to sign the touch-not-taste-not-handle-not-pledge. It was amusing to see the lords of creation dodging these feminine crusaders, whose zeal for the good cause was not to be repulsed.

—The most embarrassing thing in the world for a young man when "a sparkling" is to have the lamp suddenly go out in darkness, just before he's ready to depart. If his girl isn't a mighty sweet one he's dead sure to sink away, wishing that he had never "toasted" himself into her presence. We never wished that—but—but the cause we assign above was all that kept us from it.

—The band boys are not often in "the swim," but when they are they are in over head and ears. Thursday night Misses Jennie and Hattie Collier invited them out to their country home and regaled them with a feast of dainties such as few weddings can boast of. Music and tete-a-tetes made up the rest of the time until 11 o'clock and the boys departed, loading their fair hostesses with thanks for the evening's delights.

—Ben Moore and Charley Collins, two pupils of W. J. Edmiston's school, aged 16 and 14 respectively, fell out over a game of marbles at playtime Thursday and Collins plunged a knife into Moore somewhere about the small of the back, inflicting a dangerous if not a fatal wound. Collins was cut twice in the hand. Mr. Edmiston was at dinner and knew nothing of the fight until his return to the school-house. Collins has not been arrested.

—W. A. Brooks was in town Sunday. Mr. Charley Douglas, of Danville, was up to see his sister, Mrs. H. B. Farris, Tuesday. Mrs. R. G. Potter, of Manchester, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. A. Redd, Jr., for the past two weeks, has returned home. Mr. John Anderson, Garrard county's brainy young superintendent of common schools, took in the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night.

—Miss Mabel Graves, of Missouri, is at the Harris House. Dr. R. G. Redd, after a pleasant summer's sojourn with friends and relatives in this and adjoining counties, has returned to his home in Montana. Mrs. George Delord, who has been lying dangerously ill, is convalescing. Miss Beauregard Stuart has gone to Louisville to take a position in a millinery establishment.

—Unique and delightfully entertaining indeed was the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night, and the public showed its appreciation by filling the house with a fair-minded, intelligent audience. The contest opened with 12 entries on the boards, eight young ladies and four young gentlemen, who represented in their selected pieces every species of literature, from the grave and serious down to the most comical and ludicrous. Prof. John Anderson, of Garrard, in the absence of Squire Chappell, who had been chosen, Dr. J. D. Pettus and Mr. R. Lee Davis acted as judges; and after balancing carefully the excellencies of each reader, awarded the palm of victory to Carpenter Stuart, whose selection, "The Guileless Witness," by its happy rendition, was made as funny as could be. Andrew Buchanan, with "Calling a Boy in the Morning," came second best; Miss Eva Steger, with "The Unbeliever," third, and Miss Alice Moore with "Home to Mother," fourth.

All the contestants acquitted themselves splendidly and Mr. W. A. Zeller in particular. So well received was his selection, "The Director's Visit," that he was called upon to furnish more and responded with "George Washington's Little Hatchet," which completely captivated the house. But the witty reply which he got off on some fellow in the audience was the crowning glory of the evening. As he arose to render "George's Little Hatchet" somebody in the rear of the audience yelled out in slurry, derisive tone, "Tweekle, tweekle little star!" With a clownish stare and sarcastic tone which would have made a Dan Rice proud, he finished the stanza for the fellow—"How I wonder what you are," emphasizing the "you" so pointedly as to leave the impression on the audience that the fellow was a booby and an ass. Loud and prolonged laughter greeted this sally and everybody went away wearing a visible grin. The inter-spersion of music by the C. O. string band was a decided feature of the entertainment. The match reflects considerable honor on Prof. Smith, and another illustration of his skillful training will be afforded when the "Juvéniles" have their performance, which is promised some time next month.

—R. H. Bronaugh bought this week of George W. Spangler two year-old heifers at $3, and of others a bunch of steer calves at $10 per head. Messrs. Joe and Robert McAlister received Thursday of various parties in this locality 15 weanling mules, for which they paid prices ranging from $50 to $75 per head. Squire L. K. Wells returned from Clay county Wednesday with a fine drove of mountain cattle, numbering 60 odd head, which he will shortly put upon the market. The squire is not only a judge of pretty women and rare old Bourbon, but is one of the shrewdest of traders and if there's anything in cattle-handling he's the man to find it. Michael Bowers, a sturdy German citizen of Rockcastle, bought this week of the widow Albright her farm of 400 acres for $2,450 and of Reuben Reynolds his farm of 160 acres for $500. These lands lie contiguous to Bee Lick, and Mr. Bowers will shortly take up his abode among the people of that excellent neighborhood.

—We met recently Capt. Charles M. Warner, ex conductor of the C. V. passenger train, with whom we were associated in the days when a railroad was a thing of wonder to the natives along the Upper Cumberland. The captain no longer wears the railroad brass-buttoned uniform, having given up his run to follow his old trade, detecting for the L. & N. He is as much in love with the mountains as the burly-framed, big-hearted mountaineers are with him, and all his chat was of the prosperous future which awaits that heaven-favored section. The C. V. train will never be run by a better pilot nor one more popular with the traveling public. The captain will make his headquarters at Louisville.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Born, to the wife of Mr. G. C. Lyon, a daughter.

—Billy Weatherford is here on a furlough. There is always a hearty greeting here for Billy.

—Miss Lullie, daughter of Geo. Riffe, Sr., has had a long struggle with typhoid fever, but bids fair to recover.

—Mr. J. W. Alcorn, wife and mother visited Hustonville last week. Jim is the West Ender's refuge when there's any uncertainty about ownership, legality or even justice.

—A partial solution of the strike by stove-haulers is found in the liberal spread of fresh metal on the steepest turnpike grades, making a half load even a severe tax on the jaded teams.

—The outlook for fine fall sport has not been better since the '60's. Bird-hunters can rejoice in a general report of the greatest plentifulness of partridges; and rabbits are thicker here than English sparrows, which nuisances have become annoying.

—The veteran merchant, J. B. Green, finds it necessary to enlarge his accommodations for his increasing business. Accommodation is the most appropriate adjective to use in any connection with Mr. Green, for one of his greatest pleasures is to accommodate friend or acquaintance, no matter what the inconvenience to him.

—Saturday morning's breeze from the north stiffened up till at 4 o'clock in the afternoon it felt like an embryonic blizzard, but Sunday morning arrived without frost, though wondrously like the Sunday of a year ago, which preceded the freeze of such severity as to ruin the sorghum crop early in October.

—Mr. James H. Taylor has taken the road in the interest of the Hustonville Roller Mill. Grigg's acknowledged superiority as a high-roller flour-maker, supplemented by Jim's irresistible logic—sophistry, if necessary—will necessitate an early enlargement of the just-completed elevator, and the putting on of an efficient night shift.

—The circumambient is resonant with the wail of the orphan mule colt. There is little comfort to farmers in cattle and hogs and melody in only the bleat of the lamb and bray of the hybrid. J. W. Allen sold to Combest & Allen 40 slopping cattle at 2; the latter firm sold to Dave Allen a pair of 4-year-old mare mules for $300 and bought a good cotton mule of Mr. Allen for $80.

—Young Gooch, who was shot a week ago by an officer, survives, with excellent prospects of recovery. It is certain that a ball or two penetrated the spinal column and others have been located in the tissues of the abdomen, opposite points of entry. A direct passage without lacerating intestines would seem an impossibility. His case is a puzzle to the surgeons. Still alive, his mind clear from the no. of his wounds, appetite and digestion good and a cheerful temperament promise a rapid recovery.

—The Little Red Hog, which has been of late years a pet diversion with the I. J., is, it seems, in a fair way to be relegated to the column of minor paragraphs by the Big Red Hog, in controversy between a prominent frequenter of Rowland and a citizen of Stanford. It is a noteworthy coincidence that immediately after the settlement of a lawsuit which originated in the Middle Ages about a calf, that the disputed ownership of a hog promises a perpetuation of the wrangle on this side the ocean. The probability of another Jarndyce vs. Jarndyce is not a bleak prospect to attorneys who suspect that the revision will curtail litigation.

—The Joe Page farm of 60 acres was sold Saturday at executor's sale for $30, 25 per acre. A. M. Frye is the purchaser. This addition to Mr. Frye's farm extends his land from the Liberty to the Middleburg pike. Shades of Cincinnati! Land within a mile and less of Hustonville selling for $50 an acre, and the belief general that half the farms in Lincoln are privately on the market. Strange that the farmers will not see their benefit (!) in a high tariff and succeed better on a wind diet. We may not live to see the day of the "good time coming," but the Millennium is approaching and as old Johnny Caldwell was wont to cheer his slaves, "Hurrah! boys, you'll be free when you die."

—That the family rockaway horse, which it is thought superfluous to hitch, or even rig out with the best harness, only awaits the opportunity to play smash generally, is as nearly axiomatic as that the sleepy but trusty (?) mule courts reckless familiarity for 20 years that he may catch you in a position that his kick assures a through ticket to kingdom come. Capt. Joe Huffman is the sufferer now, in the demoralization of his old roan buggy horse, through the carelessness of his otherwise trusty friend, Wm. Reid, Sr. Mr. Reid, as chapman to a couple of young fishermen, had the loan of old Roan and a spring wagon for a trip to Green river and when elated by their phenomenal catch they embarked for home in unusual glee, old Roan had found his chance. Mr. R. as champion of the catch, had patronizingly entrusted the lines to Henry Camnitz whilst he occupied the rear seat with Will Hocker. Roan's first lunge split the rear passenger promiscuously over the tail-gate, and the seat crashed upon the sprawlers, adding Will momentarily and wounding Mr. Reid's reel hand so severely that he will need a friend to do his jerking for him next time he goes fishing. Mr. C. heroically hung onto the steering apparatus and succeeded in piloting the old reprobate into a fence corner without further damage. It is unimpeachably established that the inevitable jug was not loaded with bait and Roan's obstreperousness was not a result of his having monked with the traps in the wagon; only an outburst of that pure cussedness which was of 20 years' latency.

COOPER'S JUBILEE YEAR.

Twenty-Seventh Annual Tour of the Famous Forepaugh Show.

Judging from the newspaper reports that precede its coming, the Forepaugh Show under the proprietorship of Mr. James E. Cooper will have many sensational and unique attractions to unfold for the edification and delight of people hereabouts, at Lexington, Friday, Oct. 3, Danville, Saturday, Oct. 4. Adam Forepaugh, Jr.'s, 40-horse bareback act, the feats of his fighting, dancing and clown elephants and the amusing performances of his equine prodigies—"Blondin," the high-rope walker, and "Eclipse," the trapezist—are among the pronounced hits of the arena portion of the programme. The hippodrome races are said to possess all the stirring realism of the race track, scenes at Saratoga and Long Branch. The show teems with novelties throughout, but probably the most striking innovation is the presentation of the original "Wild West" show, supplemented with the equestrian dramas of "Custer's Last Battle" and the "Mountain Meadow Massacre," in which 200 mounted combatants are introduced. The street parade of the combined Forepaugh and "Wild West" shows is pronounced the grandest processional display ever seen in any American city. Railroad company will sell tickets at reduced rates to and from all stations.

CAN'T PLAY BALL.

The Interior Journals Beat the Lancasters Clean Out of Sight.

THEIR FEATHERS CLIPPED.—When the Interior Journals went to Lancaster Wednesday and were defeated by that club, not only the base ball players of that nine, but most of the town people went wild over their success and a feeling of conceit evidently penetrated their very souls. In fact they forgot that they were merely amateur players, and not very good ones at that, and when the manager of the I. J.'s casually remarked that they could not beat him team again, filthy lucre was shoved at him and he was forced to either put up or shut up. Arrangements were made then and there for another game, which was to be for $100 a side, and Friday afternoon was set for the date. The understanding was that each club should play the same nine that they played in the game previous, but on account of the sickness of Critchlow and the inability of Barton to leave his business, a couple of our substitutes were put in. This Manager Penny told the gentlemen who were seemingly anxious to put up their tin, but who at the mention of the substituted players declared the bets were off. Manager Penny also explained to them that the substitutes were no better than Critchlow and Barton and offered to let them be their own judges as to their playing, but the heretofore sportive men had so wilted that they could hardly be induced to bet on their own existence. It was finally agreed that the winning club should be entitled to the gate receipts and the game was then called and the Lancasters suffered the severest defeat that any poor base ball club ever heard of in these parts. The home team went to bat and made 3 runs; the I. J.'s then scored 6; the Lancasters made nothing in the 2d, but scored 1 in the 3d inning, and right here they died, for with all their hard playing they could not make another run. Our namesakes got three in the 3d, 3 in the 3d, 1 in the 4th, 6 in the 5th and 9 in the 6th. At this juncture of the game the boys who had crouched so loudly since our Waterloo of Wednesday, grew sick at heart and threw up the sponge, the game standing 28 to 4. It is no telling what the score would have been had not they given up the game, as our boys were literally pounding the life out of their "crack" pitcher, Ed Coleman; the catcher was broken down and two of the basemen were worn out. Ramsey and Embury were our battery and did good work, the former allowing only four base hits and the latter supporting him admirably. Will Wearen unpinned an exceedingly satisfactory game and the consequence was there was no grumbling. One of the features of the game was Davison's putting 3 men out on 1st without an assist, and another was the good throwing of our boys, not to speak of 8 baggers and several 3-baggers that were made off of Pitcher Coleman. Our club is under obligations to that clever gentleman, Woodford G. Dunlap, for courtesies received, as well as to several other Lancaster gentlemen. We never crow over a fallen foe, but to the Lancaster club we would suggest that hereafter they remember that he who laughs last laughs best.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The county co-operation of the Christian churches will meet at Rush Branch church next Saturday morning at 9:30.

—Mrs. Pokie T. Courts united with the Presbyterian church Sunday by letter and her daughter, Miss Edna, by confession.

—The A. M. E. Conference is in session at Lexington. Rev. D. W. Ellison, pastor here, is a member of the committee on education.

—The meeting at Kingsville conducted by Elds. J. L. Allen and J. G. Livingston had resulted in 16 additions to yesterday and in an increased interest.

—Mrs. Hunter and Evans and Bro. Joe Hopper are conducting a meeting in Mercer, with 28 additions to last report. Rev. Mr. Campbell, of the Christian church, had had 40 in his meeting at Cornishville.

—The clergyman who leaves his calling to enter the political field, or who attempts to serve his Master while consorting with the political Devil is unworthy of his pulpit and unfit to be a law-maker.—Covington Commonwealth.

—Eld Zach Sweeney and wife are here from Columbus, Ind., on a visit to Eld. John S. Sweeney. Eld. Zach is minister to Turkey, and is one of the most popular ministers of the Christian church.—Paris News. He says he did not come home to run for Congress.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Bettie, daughter of Hon. S. F. Lawrence, and Mr. Lucien M. Adkins, both of Louisville, will marry on the 10th.

—Mrs. Annie Hall has brought suit for divorce from her husband at Brooklyn on the ground that he grits his teeth while sleeping so that her nerves have been ruined.

—Bowling Green is to have free delivery of its mails.

A Blue-Grass Farm FOR SALE.

Wishing to quit farming, I will offer for sale on the premises, on

Wednesday, Oct. 1, 1890,

In one or more tracts, my farm in Lincoln Co., situated near the Danville & Hustonville turnpike 3 1/2 miles from Shelby City, and containing

About 300 Acres.

I can say without hesitation that this is naturally one of the best bodies of land in the county, said having been "cradled" for 20 years, is in condition to produce the heaviest of cereal crops, while its grass-producing capacity is unsurpassed. There are but 30 acres now under cultivation, the balance all set in blue-grass, timothy and clover. It is well watered by creek and never-failing springs. The fencing has all been re-set within the last 18 months and every field and pasture has water in it. The dwelling is a modern 4-room frame of 3 rooms, with a bath, a wash-room, front and ell porches and two nice, dry cellars rooms. There are two large cisterns, stable and shed room for 50 head of stock, stock shed, wheat bin, feed shop, poultry house, flower pit, corn crib, carriage sheds, neat house, two good orchards and every variety of small fruit, trees and shrubs. Public school close by and churches and mills convenient of access.

At the same time I will also sell all my stock, consisting of 1 and 2-year-old cattle, milk cows, and a few horses, also my entire

HERD OF POLLED ANGUS CATTLE.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,

JAMES B. MCCREARY.

The actual standing of the candidates in the 11th so far as uncontested votes are concerned is as follows: Wilson heads the list with 50, Finley has 39, Nell 23, Boreing 14 and Adams 12. It will take 101 votes to nominate and the fun will arise as to who shall get the counties of Pulaski, Whitley, Harlan, Perry and Leslie, there being two delegations from each. If Wilson, Boreing and Nell combine they can name the presiding officers and this they will, no doubt, do. Chairman Colson will, in all probability, decide that the contested delegations shall take no part till the committee on credentials has passed on their claims. The convention, which will be called to order at noon to-day, is going to be the largest ever held in this part of the State and London will be taxed to the utmost to entertain the delegates. The citizens have, however, without regard to politics, opened their houses and asked that the delegates be assigned them.

The president of the board of commissioners announces that the buildings of the Kentucky Institution for the Education and Training of Feeble Minded Children, which were destroyed by fire on May 3, 1889, have been rebuilt and enlarged, so that there is now room for 100 more children. Any feeble minded child, a citizen of Kentucky, over 6 and under 18 years of age, is entitled to the benefits of the institution. A letter addressed to Dr. John Q. A. Stewart, Superintendent, Frankfort, will secure the necessary papers and all information in reference to the admission of applicants, or Hon. W. H. Miller will secure the admission should any parent or guardian in this county wish to accept the benefits of the institution.

EDITOR LEWIS, of the Somerset Republican, is evidently not for Finley. Says he: "While Finley's boodles captured Wayne, Metcalf and Russell from Nell and Adams, those gentlemen still have a good fighting chance. The defeat of Finley is a foregone conclusion. The big split in his own county has sounded his political death knell." Lewis led a bolt in his own county against the ringsters, trying to run rough-shod over the country people, although he thought Trimble justly entitled to the county. As the phrenologists would say, the bump of combativeness is about as largely developed on Bro. Lewis as in any man in Kentucky. He had rather be in a squall any time than have plain sailing.

The Barbourville News denies the story of the Critic about Barbourville being on the down grade and says it was prompted by malice on the part of Alexander Campbell Thompson, who was kicked out of the News office for incompetency, and of "Daniel E. O'Sullivan, who one time not long since, not longer than last spring, was about to be thrashed by Gov. James Givens over some attack made upon the governor by this second-class sheet aforesaid." It is a pretty fight as it stands and our only desire is that the stockholders may come out on top.

ELIZABETHTOWN is about to demonstrate, what has been demonstrated times without number, that three papers can not live in a one-paper town. The Welcome Tidings' editors have skipped out and the Hardin County Independent is so overpowered with law suits that its editors had better give up and quit before they get worse off. Meantime the old reliable News is sailing right along, proud of its prestige and furnishing another example of the survival of the fittest.

The McKinley tariff bill as reported by the conference committee, passed the House Saturday 152 to 81. A gentleman who has studied the bill and figured it out says it will add an annual tax of $1 to every man, woman and child in the country. The bill will go at once to the Senate, which will pass it as soon as possible, though it will not likely be able to do so by to-day, upon which the House has voted to finally adjourn.

The con. con. doesn't seem to want to get down to business. Col. Young from his committee reported a resolution providing that no new counties shall be created with less than 400 square miles and 10,000 inhabitants, and asked that the question be acted on at once, but the body was not ready to settle even this easy question. Meantime, the tide of resolutions continues to flow, with as yet no sign of an ebb.

THERE is even more difference in their statesmanship than in their marksman ship. Cleveland shot at a 225-pound deer and brought it down. Harrison killed a poor little Virginia pig when he shot at a duck. One made the best shot for 50 years, the other has completely disgraced the country and lost his own party.

It is said to be best never to count the chickens before they are hatched and ordinarily it is the safest plan to pursue, but it seems now so certain that the next National House of Representatives will be democratic that its probable officers are already being discussed. For speaker our excellent congressman, Gov. McCreary, is being prominently mentioned all over the country and wherever his peculiar fitness for the position is known he has ardent supporters. In our last issue we referred to complimentary notices of him in connection with the speakership in the Boston Post and Louisville Times and now a Washington paper comes with even a more flattering article and stronger endorsement of the proposed candidacy. There is no question that Gov. McCreary is one of the best equipped men in Congress for speaker or that, in the almost absolute certainty of a democratic House, he will have a formidable following for the position.

At a banquet given in honor of Mr. Watterson by the Massachusetts Reform Club at Boston, covers were laid for 300 and many prominent tariff reformers were present. Mr. Watterson responded to the toast "Sectionalism" and as usual had something to say and said it beautifully and eloquently. He appealed to the people of the North to disregard the sectional misrepresentations made by the politicians in the interest of a party and cease the perpetual war between kinsmen who have a common inheritance and the destiny of a great country in their keeping. The speaker touched, of course, on the tariff and in vigorous language gave earnest of the faith that is in him.

Some of the newspaper men, who accepted the hospitality of the Middleboro Town Company, have not had a line about it in their papers. Common courtesy demands some recognition of the entertainment, but unfortunately the average country editor seems to labor under the delusion that the earth and the fullness thereof are his without asking and without thanks.

An inventory of Hon. Samuel J. Randall's estate shows that it is valued at less than $5,000 and consists of personal effects only. The inscription on his monument should read, "Here lies an honest man, who served his country well, and never made merchandise of his position or politics."

NEWS CONDENSED

—Fowler Bros.' packing-house, Chicago, burned; loss $800,000.

—Henry H. Reynier, an excellent citizen of Casey, is dead, aged 69.

—A $6,000 monument is being placed over the grave of Judge Richard Reid at Mt. Sterling.

—Twenty or more people were killed in a wreck on the Oregon Short Line near Pendleton.

—Hiram Johnson, of the East End, sold to Garrard county parties a car-load of fat cattle at 3 cents.

—Congressman Stone has been renominated and Mr. Ellis in the First has made his calling and election sure.

—James Hugh fell from his train near Lebanon Junction and was killed. He was an engineer, but was braking at the time.

—The negro, Miller, seated last week by the republicans, was given a seat next to Congressman Dickerson, of Kentucky.

—James Proffit stabbed to death a man named Kearns, near Middlesboro, and Chief of Police Hill thinks it was a pre-meditated murder. He was held without bail.

—Attorney General Hardin decides that the license under which the lotteries claim to operate is void and advises Auditor Norman not to accept their tender of money.

—The census bureau announces populations of California towns as follows: Los Angeles 50,394, increase 39,211; San Diego, 16,154, increase 13,516; Santa Barbara, 5,849, increase 2,389.

—Two cadets at the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, settled a quarrel in regular prize fight style. On the 15th round young Taliaferro grew weak and was laid on a bed, where he died in a few minutes.

—With the exception of Jackson, of West Virginia, and Venable, of Virginia, the latter refusing to be a candidate, all the democrats robbed of their seats by the republicans have been renominated for Congress.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer says that both the L. & N. and E. T. V. & G., which have been negotiating for the purchase of the K. C., have decided that Mr. Huntington's price is too high and the deals are all off.

—The postmaster of the House is to be investigated because he let contracts for carrying the mails for $5,000 a year and received in return from the contractors $150 a month. The rads are a very rotten set to be sure.

—J. Poorman, of Laurel county, and J. Tussey, of Jackson county, were taken to Louisville by United States Deputy Marshal Page and lodged in jail. They are accused of making moonshine. They make 42 in jail there for the same kind of offense.

—The trial of George W. Maupin for killing Ballard Bronston was concluded in the circuit court on Wednesday. The jury were out only long enough to take one ballot, which resulted in a unanimous verdict of justifiable homicide.—Richmond Register.

—A wreck on the B. & O. near Zanesville, O., killed eight and wounded many others.

—Levy & Bro.'s distillery warehouse, at Milton, and 1,500 barrels of whisky burned Sunday. The loss will be over $100,000.

—President Reemlin, of the Cincinnati Board of Public Works, has been caught robbing the city and Gov. Campbell telegraphed him Saturday: "I believe you to be dishonest and I demand your resignation before noon Monday next."

—The small reduction on smoking and chewing tobacco tax, viz: from 8 to 6 cents a pound, does not go into effect until the end of next June. This is done for the purpose of keeping down the certain deficit that will be found in the revenues of the government.

—A judge in the staid old Quaker town of Philadelphia has just decided that the "Kreutzer Sonata" is not obscene, but that on the contrary it is calculated to improve the morals of mankind. But all the same, Wanamaker won't let it pass through the mails.

—Of all the cities in the country the one that shows the greatest per cent. of increase is Tacoma, W. T. Its growth has been over 5,000 per cent. This however is explained by the fact that ten years ago the place was only a small village of a few hundred inhabitants.

—The conferees of the Tariff bill have fixed the duty on binding twine at 7-10 of a cent a pound. The duty at present is 2 1/2 cents. The Western republican senators who voted for free binding twine are kicking, but nearly all will swallow the medicine when the dose is presented.

—A unique canvass is now progressing in the Fort Scott, Kan., district, where Gen. John H. Rice and his son are opposing candidates for the legislature. Gen. Rice asks his friends to deal lightly with the boy; that he is young and immature, while the boy says that the times demand the blood and vigor of youth and old men should retire to the chimney corner.

—The president has appointed E. Burd Grubb, of New Jersey, to be Minister to Spain, and Congressman Conger, of Iowa, to be Minister to Brazil. Mr. Conger is at present Chairman of the House Committee on Coinage Weights and Measures, and is also the author of the Conger Land Bill. Grubb gets his reward for running for governor in New Jersey.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

—Mr. Miller proposes six classes of municipal charters, with iron bound provisions. He would have municipalities of the first class limited to a tax of $1.50 on the $100 of taxable property.

—The committee on crimes and punishments reported adversely on the resolution looking to the prohibition of punishment by the lash for public offenses and the proposition that all executions under the law should take place within the prison walls.

—Judge Beckner says our divorce laws are as lax as Indiana's or those of Illinois and to put a stop to the indiscriminate decrees he has offered a resolution that all trials for divorce shall be before a jury instead of the judge as at present. Mr. Phelps, of Louisville, offered a resolution to make the Bible cause for divorce the only one to be considered.

—The Louisville labor organizations have presented petitions to the convention for clauses requiring compulsory education, a fixed minimum age at which children can be employed in factories and mines, a fixed number of hours constituting a legal day's work, the Australian ballot system, the establishment of a bureau of labor statistics; also a board of arbitration, with power to settle differences between employers and employees, providing for the payment of wages in lawful currency, and for the branding with a distinguishing mark all goods or wares made by convict labor.

Preachers and politics don't assimilate. Preachers never purify politics, but politics invariably corrupt preachers. We never yet knew a preacher fit for any good purpose after he went to Congress. If Brother Gilliam is now a good and pious man, his friends should keep him away from Washington City. If they have any regard for his spiritual welfare they will vote against him.—Jessamine Journal.

JIM FARMER brought in a curious bird yesterday that he had killed. It is some what like the picture of a bittern, though differing in color. The cold northern blast must have blown it to our section.

When the county court was changed from the 1st to the 2d Monday, the court of claims was allowed to remain as before, so that body will convene here next Monday to pass on the accounts of those who have claims against the county.

The L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Louisville to-day, to-morrow and Thursday at one fare on account of the Fall Celebration, good till the 7th. Half fare rates will also be given on the 4th, 5th and 6th to the German Festival in Louisville.

The remains of Mrs. A. Livingston, who died last week in Kansas City, were brought to her son, Eld. J. G. Livingston, and after an impressive funeral sermon Sunday by Rev. T. J. Godbey, of the Methodist church, of which she was a devoted member, were laid to rest in the old family burying-ground.

TIM ROOT, a pal of Will Gooch, against whom there are three bench warrants for various offenses and a fine of $5 for disturbing religious worship, was arrested by Deputy Otis Newland, Friday night, at Garland Adams' and lodged in jail. It was reported after Gooch got shot that he had fled to Texas, but Otis got on to him and he will have to defer his western trip for some time.

The jury in the case of Martin, charged with the murder of Will Embury, colored, at Richmond, brought in a verdict of acquittal, notwithstanding Judge Morton's peremptory instructions to find him guilty of either murder or manslaughter. The judge therefore ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the matter and the county attorney produced affidavits to show that a number of the jury had expressed their opinion in the case, altho' they afterwards swore otherwise. Martin goes clear, but it seems that the jury is in for it, both for contempt and false swearing, the latter a penitentiary offense.

KILLED.—William Crawford, a Lebanon negro, who had been working on Capt. Geer's train, was run over by freight train No. 31 near Hazel Patch and instantly killed. He had been sent by Capt. Geer to flag the train, but while sitting on the track had gone to sleep. It is quite a strange coincidence that three of his men have gone to sleep while flagging during the last week and it was merely a piece of luck that the other two did not get killed also. Jim Palmer, who was sent back with a flag, went to sleep and the engine was just 5 feet from him when it came to a halt. A negro named Growder was then made flagman and he also followed the example of the other two and would have been run over had it not been for Capt. Geer discovering him and arousing him with a kick where it did the most good.

The little boys on the hill indited and handed us the following, which we publish as written. Their complaint is well grounded. Let the trustees see that the grounds are not used by the public for anything else than the ones intended.

DEAR MR. WALTON:—We the undersin-rs and pupils of Stanford Seminary, through your paper would like to know of the trustees of school if private persons have the right to pasture horses, hogs and cattle upon the grounds, which has become an unbearable nuisance to us little fellows who slip and slide and fall in something worse than mud.

Sannie Embury, Harry Baughman, John Hale, Ben Wearen, Logan Hughes, Charlie White, Robert T. Bruce, John Cordier, William Embury, Lee Raney, Harris Wearen, Joe Will McAlister, Manley Tyree, Hunt McAlister, Barnes Wearen, Ashby Warren, Jesse C. Ramsey, Thomas Shanks.

Our stock of fall and winter goods is now complete. Come and see us. Severance & Son.

CALL and examine my $5, all-wool chinchilla overcoat, men's. Joe S. Jones, opposite the Portman House.

The city council has employed V. B. B. Watson to attend to and light the street lamps, in addition to making him night policeman.

In addition to his class of 22 here, which he teaches every Tuesday and Friday nights, Prof. J. M. Sibold has large vocal music classes at Kingsville and Turnersville.

Those wishing suits would do well to call and examine my stock now, as it is complete in every particular, and includes some of the finest goods ever handled in Stanford. H. C. Ruple.

We desire to inform the public that our meat store will always be supplied with all kinds of fresh meats and fresh fish in their season. Highest cash price paid for hides. M. F. Elkin & Co.

BEACH & BOWERS' Minstrels gave a splendid performance Saturday night to a good audience, that went away highly pleased with its many features. Lew Tatum is a whole show in himself and his stump speech fairly took the house by storm.

The Louisville Times says Engineer Phil Soden pulled a delayed mail train on this division last week at the rate of 63 miles an hour. Phil is one of the best men at the throttle on the road. He has a wonderful nerve and the best part about it is that he never tampers with intoxicants to stimulate or impair it.

FOR SAFE KEEPING.—Deputy Sheriff Bird and Hargis, of Bell county, brought to jail here yesterday for safe keeping, Eb Goodin, who shot and killed Town Marshal George Covert, of Pineville, a few weeks ago. At his trial Goodin was held without bail and the officers say it is a case of cold-blooded murder and that Bell county is as good for a hanging as a cent is for a ginger cake.

The Boyle county juries seem to have been out of whack this court, as more of them hung than usual. The panel in the case of Isaac Shelby, Jr., for the murder of Green Linginfelt, after being out two days was discharged, standing seven for acquittal and five for two years.

There was a hung jury also in the case of Green Lay, who murdered Pokie Colter at Junction City. Bettie Doty, a negro woman, plead guilty to the charge of murdering her own infant and was given a life sentence.

News comes from Wyoming that Hon. T. P. Hill, Jr., who ran for circuit clerk of the Buffalo district, was the only democrat saved in the general wreck that resulted from the election. His excellent conduct of the office under Territorial rule and general popularity carried him through and elected him by a majority of about 75. The office will pay about $2,000 a year and Tom's friends here will be much gratified at his success. We also hear that Judge Sanley is fixing to turn his face homeward and in less than two weeks will bid a final adieu to the rotten borough, where women vote and are permitted to unsex themselves generally.

JOHN HOWARD JAILLED.—Detective T. V. Imboden, who arrested Wils Jennings in Missouri some time since, arrived yesterday with John Howard, a brother of the notorious Wils Howard, the Harlan desperado, whom he had arrested at Hindville, Ark. Howard is charged with the murder of Bob Craig and others in Harlan and a reward of $500 had been offered by the governor for his delivery to the jailer here. He is about 19 years old and at the time the detective caught him he was enjoying a spelling bee. He made no resistance and was brought most of the way without being handcuffed. [Mr. Imboden is a splendid detective and a fearless man and rarely fails to land his game.

A LINCOLN COUNTY MAN KILLED.—Intelligence of the killing of J. T. Lasley, at Branford, Florida, reached us by telegraph Saturday. Mr. Lasley was a brother of Mr. L. M. Lasley, of this place, and lived in this county a number of years, where many friends will regret to learn of his tragic death. Shortly after Mr. Lasley moved to Branford he was elected mayor and during his term incurred the hostility of several scamps who made a habit of getting drunk and taking the town. He put a stop to such doings by lodging some of them in jail, and one J. T. Garner has had it in for him ever since. Friday night he succeeded in his long formed determination of killing Mr. Lasley. After the deed he fled to an upstairs room, from which he exchanged a score of shots with Stuart Carson, a friend of Mr. Lasley and a son of Judge Carson, of Crab Orchard. During this shooting H. D. Sapp, a by-stander, was instantly killed. Garner was arrested and it was with much difficulty that he was prevented from being lynched, as Mr. Lasley was very popular in his new home. The deceased married Miss Jean Dickinson, of Crab Orchard, who died in giving birth to twins, who are still living and make their home with their grandmother there. After going to Florida he married there and two children were the result of the union. Both died, however, and were buried there and his remains were placed by their side.

DELEGATES to the republican convention at London to-day will be granted a uniform rate of 4 cents a mile for the round-trip. From Pulaski alone over 60 are going.

HELD.—The examining trial of Doc Russell and his son, B. G., for robbing and burning Jim Carter's store, commenced promptly at 10 o'clock Friday and the last speech was not delivered till afternoon Saturday. There was a tremendous mass of testimony, a good deal of it, of course, irrelevant, as is always the case in such trials, and while there was none which directly connected the accused with the crime, there was much circumstantial evidence that did.

The actions of Doc Russell on the night of the fire, when he was suspected of taking goods off in a churn instead of carrying water to the fire, as he tried to leave the impression he was doing, his assertion without cause that the house was not set afire and other minor circumstances, gave a reasonable belief that he knew something about it and Judge Varnon accordingly held him for further trial in bond of $500, which he gave, with his brother, John Russell, as security. It was proved on the boy that he was seen hiding near the fire, that a can of Mr. Carter's peaches was found where he was, that he had a big lot of tobacco with which he paid a debt or two and said that he had plenty of tobacco and whisky, that he read the account of the fire in this paper and said Mr. Carter had had a lie published and that there were not half the things taken that he said there were, &c. He was also held in $500 and released on bond. The two were defended by Col. W. O. Bradley, P. M. McRoberts and Lawyer Davison and prosecuted by J. B. Paxton, W. G. Welch, W. E. Varnon and J. S. Owsley, Jr., each of whom made long and "eloquent" speeches.

The trial of Shelby Dalton, or "Santa Claus" as he is better known, occupied but a short time. Mr. Carter testified that when his store was burned there were among other things in his cash drawer, a copper cent, coined in 1838 and given to him by his father 40 years or more ago. A few weeks ago, Charley Armstrong, a colored man, offered the cent along with some other money for a purchase. Mr. Carter recognized the copper at once and asked the negro where he got it. He said he had won it from Mr. Dalton on a game of cards a few minutes before. Carter asked Dalton about it and he claimed to have found it with some other coin in a tin box at somebody's spring. Dalton told the same tale on the witness stand and explained that the reason he had evaded arrest was because he had heard some negroes were after him and he did not propose to be arrested by negroes. Dalton was very emphatic in the assertions of his innocence, but Judge Varnon evidently thought he protested too much for an innocent man and held him in $250 bail, which he could not give. The court appointed Col. Hill and Prof. T. M. Goodknight to defend Dalton, who claimed he was unable to procure counsel. The prisoner's head is as white as cotton and he looks more like a candidate for the grave than the penitentiary.

Mart Smith's case, for the same offense, was called yesterday before Judge Carson, who issued the writ, and the prisoner claiming that he was unable to employ counsel, the court appointed P. M. McRoberts to defend him. Armp Dawson testified that Mart had asked him to go to Carter's with him and said he wanted to put a bug in his (Carter's) ear, that a man had put a pistol at his head and said he had to go and talked in other mysterious ways. Mrs. Kitts said that Smith told her he was in trouble and couldn't sleep, that had company had caused it. Smith proved that he was at home the night of the fire and that the bug he wanted to put in Carter's ear was that a band of men had tried to get him to come with them to Stanford to rob a bank and he wanted to put Carter on their trail. Judge Carson thereupon decided that no case had been made against Smith and he was discharged.

The trial of the Cains, Jim, Pete and Tom, will be held this morning.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Corn sold in the field in Mercer at $1.97 a barrel.

—The Midway Clipper reports sales of 94 stock hogs at $1.

—I. S. Phillips sold to A. K. Denny 3 mare mule colts at $80.

—Owsley Stephenson bought of John Cash a pair of mare work mules for $325.

—J. H. Dunn sold to Robinson, of Garrard, 13 head fat 3-year-old cattle at $3 cts.

—Keller Thomas, a horseman, bought G. Tucker's place of 40 acres near Paris $175 per acre.

—A. T. Nunneley bought of H. S. Withers and others a car-load of 200 and 300-pound hogs at $3 cts.

—J. S. Hawkins & Co., sold to Dr. C. F. Dale, of Woodford, 120 head of sheep at $3.75 per head.—Jessamine Journal.

—J. A. Harris & Son sold to Eugene Lee, 2 car-loads of 1,525-pound cattle at 4.10. J. M. Reid sold same a couple of car-loads of same at same price.

—A census of the fruit trees in Los Angeles county, Cal., shows there are 10,365, -305. Among the large individual farms is that owned by Mme. Modjeska.

—James P. Tribble has sold to Parrish & Douglass 45 head of 2-year-old cattle, October delivery, at $1. Dr. Antz sold to Pony Beazley, of Garrard, his fine gelding for $325.—Richmond Register.

—Nelson broke the world's stallion record at Kankakee, Ill., Saturday, lowering it from 2:12 to 2:11 1/2. The race was made on a kite-shaped track, said to be four seconds faster than the regular constructed track.

—Apples are remarkably scarce and are being retailed by the hucksters at $1 per bushel. Irish potatoes are scarcer, and there are but few in the hill and as small as hen eggs. They are retailing at 35 cents per peck from the market wagons.—Paris News.

—Green Morris paid $6,000 for Watterson last May, and Saturday the same horse sold for less than a third of that sum. This shows how easy it is for even an experienced horseman to get fooled, and proves that luck is an important factor in turf success.

—F. Reid sold to Eugene Lee 2 car-loads of 1,500-pound cattle to be delivered Nov. 1 at 4.10 and a car-load of 1,400-pounders, for Dec. 1 delivery at 4 cents. Mr. Reid has bought in the last week 60 head of 1,100 to 1,200-pound cattle at 3.35 to $4.

—Embry & Dunn sold on Thursday to L. W. Hudson 14 mules at $165. Robert Nave, of this county, has sold to L. W. Hudson 30 extra nice sugar mules at $115. L. W. Hudson bought of Gentry Bros., of Fayette, a load of extra heavy city mules at $185 per head; also a load of good sugar mules at $160; of Beard & Caruthers, a load of sugar mules at $157. 50. Arch Fry sold to Bass & Kimbrough, of Missouri, one 16-months jack for $625. Also one 5-year-old for $550. Etta Latimer sold to same parties a 10-month-old jack for $300.—Danville Advocate.

—The Best Advertising Medium.

Our senior and junior are too proud to keep this nice letter sent to the latter, all to themselves, so will divide it with the public, withholding only the names.

Mr. WALTON:—Please accept our grateful thanks for your prompt and most excellent denial of that foolish announcement. In the future if any one doubts the advantage of the INTERIOR JOURNAL as an advertising medium, refer him to me. Letters of congratulation from five States, to say nothing of various counties in Kentucky have been received and in every instance the I. J. is mentioned as source of information. May its banner wave until its editor and his associate are "battered millionaires" and the free and unfettered democratic minority is an all consuming majority, is the sincere wish of Your Friend,

X.

May you be there to see that Reed & his Force bill are the first to be consumed.

KENTUCKY SCHOOLS.—Every county in the State has white common schools. The county having the smallest number is Gallatin county, which has 22 (it is a small county, however), and the county having the greatest number of schools is Pulaski—139. The other counties vary between these two extremes. There are only six in the State which have no colored common schools, not one of which has reported a sufficient number of colored children to compose a school district, 20 pupils being the minimum. These counties are Elliott, Jackson, Leslie, Letcher, Martin and Owsley. The counties having the smallest number of colored schools, one each, are Campbell, Carter, Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Magoffin, Menefee, Morgan, Perry, Rockcastle, Rowan and Wolfe. The county having the largest number of colored schools is Christian—52. The other counties having colored common schools vary between these extremes.

The prohibition convention, which met in Georgetown on Monday and nominated a candidate for Congress adopted resolutions declaring for absolute prohibition of the manufacture and sale of liquor. These extreme prohibitionists are doing more injury to the cause of practical temperance than all other agencies combined. The only practicable, sensible thing to do to limit the liquor traffic to a minimum is high license, and prohibition is the worst enemy high license has. Fanaticism never accomplished any permanent good in the world, and prohibition is temperance ran mad and can never command the support of the conservative classes who make up public opinion.—Lex. Gazette.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—The tailors' strike is about over. They have gone back to work for the same wages.

—Next Saturday will be a big day in Danville, or at least a large crowd is expected. A big circus and election to vote on prohibition.

—All the churches joined in a union temperance service at the 2d Presbyterian church Sunday night, in which all of the ministers made brief addresses on that subject.

—Ben H. Perkins, proprietor of the Perkins House, has rented the Gilcher Hotel and took possession Saturday. Mr. Radigan, the former proprietor, goes to Catlettsburg to take charge of a hotel which he recently bought.

—M. P. Sallee, one of our good citizens and farmers, is dangerously sick at his home near town with kidney trouble. He has a large number of friends and relatives who pray for his early recovery. Little Fred Grant, son of S. P. Grant, is seriously ill with flux.

—There is being much interest taken in the Young Men's Christian Association meetings at the College chapel on Sunday evenings. Young men of town, as well as those connected with the College, are taking part in the services.

—Col. L. F. Copeland will deliver a lecture at the Opera House Tuesday night, 30th, on "What's to Hinder?" This lecture opens the season's lecture course. Everybody was well pleased with his lecture last year and no doubt a large crowd will greet him Tuesday eve.

—Mr. P. Maninni sold at public auction Saturday his property on Main street, known as the old Central Hotel, to Mr. Tuttle, of Junction City, for $3,535. Mr. Maninni has been in the grocery business at this place for 15 years. He came from Lexington to this place and will probably return to the same place.

—Well, it's time for women to draw a halt, for they cannot appear like men, it makes no difference how they do. I say appear like men—let's see, they wear caps, coats, vests, shirts, collars and ties, and some "breeches," and what else is there so far as dress is concerned? These are the styles this season. When will the reform come? A change must take place soon, one else we might get mixed.

—An accident, which may result in a death, happened in the office of Mac Thurman's livery stable Sunday morning. While Tom Williams, Frank Masonheimer and Brad Rogers were playing with a pistol, it was discharged, the bullet entering Rogers' neck, cutting his windpipe and lodging in his back just behind the shoulder. The bullet was extracted soon afterwards by a physician. The pistol was in the hands of Masonheimer when discharged. Rogers is a young man about 19 years old and a son of Charles Rogers.

A Feline Clock.

Every one knows that cats can see in the dark, and the reason they can do so is because of the peculiar construction of their eyes. You may have noticed that in a moderate light the pupil or black part of pussy's eye is small and of an oval shape, while in a full glare of light it becomes narrow. Now in the dark it expands to a circle and nearly fills the surface of the eyeball. This peculiarity of the cat's eyes is turned to account in a curious manner by the Chinese.

The Abbe Hae relates that when he was traveling in China he asked his attendant what time it was. The man went over to a cat that was quietly basking in the sun, and examining its eyes told the abbe that it was about two hours after noon, and on being questioned how he knew that he explained that the pupils of a cat's eyes were largest in the morning, and that they gradually grew smaller as the light increased till they reached their minimum at noon; that then they began to widen again, till at night they once more became large.

The good abbe was filled with admiration for the ingenuity of a people who could use cats as clocks. But it must be admitted that this way of telling the time of day is rather a loose one, and could only be trusted in very, very clear and serene weather, for temporary gloom or the darkness of a storm would sadly derange your four footed clock and put it all wrong.—Exchange.

Evil Island Anticosti.

The island of Anticosti has always held an evil reputation to mariners lying close to the course of navigation to the mouth of the St. Lawrence. Its long, low shores were the scene of many disastrous wrecks, and the sufferings of sailors who succeeded in gaining the land were grievous and terrible from the absence of water and means of subsistence. Since it has been properly lighted its dangers have been greatly diminished; but from the fact of its desolate and lonely position and its absence of population the island has long been the resort of characters who have found there a refuge from justice.

It is evident that of late years this criminal population must have been largely increased, for we now hear that the wreck of the Idaho has been taken possession of by a gang of pirates, upward of 100 strong, who have set at defiance the Canadian cruiser Wakonah, and that it had been necessary to send her majesty's steamship Comus from Halifax to cope with them. It may be hoped that her operations will result in the complete breaking up of this gang of desperadoes, who constitute a serious danger to the crews of vessels that may be cast upon the coast.—London Standard.

—Pat Castello, who killed Capt. Brown while an officer was hand-cuffing him, was cleared at Richmond on the ground that it was accidental.

Boyle county is in the throes of another local option contest. Not satisfied with ruining Danville as a business point, the cranks have determined to extend their prohibition fight to the outlying precincts and embrace the whole county. Boyle county is getting to be too pious for the rest of the State and ought to set up a little God-Almighty kingdom of its own.—Richmond Register.
